

TROPICAL THUNDERSTORM (Constance Hauman ©2021)

On this navy blue night with the glint of Saturn's rings
So you see it's not always true that love is blind
Sometimes it's so awake that every detail is memorized
My heart is full of melancholy in quartet strings
In a tropical thunderstorm, so many emotions are setting me free
Setting me Free

But my desire to love you feels huge like the ocean
I have no real idea how or why this was set into motion
Set into motion
A romantic heart with a painter's eye, every look says, 'I cannot tell a lie'
So the truth of the flow that carries us at this moment

(background vocal)
But now I stand dumbstruck that you have lit me like lighting to a tree

I am younger now than I have ever been
The wise woman I am, is no longer hidden
My love for you is completely untethered
There is no season, my friend, I cannot weather

There is the truth of the flow

We don't need to search for the Holy Grail
It's what we already have found that we each channel inside
Powerful as two countries who rule side by side

My love for you is completely untethered
There is no season, my friend I cannot weather
Though I know it is not very royal to express my emotion
I want to reassure you that you have my deepest devotion
A King, you are to me of the highest order
I will protect you from anyone who tries to threaten your border
If you decide, decide to make two kingdoms as one
I will share all I have with you and then some

I've been warned that arranged unions often fell in Love
Especially when angel choirs sang 'amen' from above

A King, you are to me of the highest order
I will protect you from anyone who tries to threaten your border
The truth of this flow that carries me at this moment
It is what we know

But I am younger now than I have ever been A wise woman now is no longer hidden, you've found her

My desire to love you feels huge like the ocean

Don't know why this was set into motion

So you say that love is blind
Sometimes it is so awake that every detail is memorized
A romantic heart with a painter's eye, every look says 'I cannot tell you a lie'
A lie
The truth of the flow, the truth of the flow, of the flow
At this moment is what you know, what I know
I am younger now than I have ever been
The wise woman I am is no longer hidden
You found her

If you decide one day you want to make two kingdoms as one
I will share all I have with you and then some
I've been married twice but three's a charm,
I've been warned that arranged unions often fell in Love
Especially when angel choirs sang 'amen' from above

The truth of the flow of the love glow will carry me

We are younger than we have ever been
Sometimes it is so awake that every detail is memorized

A King, you are to me of the highest order
I will protect you from anyone who tries to threaten your border
Sometimes it's so awake that every detail is memorized

It's a Tropical Thunderstorm of so many emotions that is setting me free

SWAG (Constance Hauman ©2021)

Stella's got her groove back, it's no secret why
Just look at her she's feeling really fly
Someone gave her the power of swag
If you look really close you'll see the red flag

He's like a drug, he's like a drug, oh he's like a drug
He's like a drug
Is she addicted? Is she addicted? Is she addicted?
Is she is addicted to him?

Sex and Love is about chemistry
Has been the truth since all of Herstory
Oh a drug, drug, drug oh oh oh ooo

Just look at her eyes
I know she's dreaming of his thighs
If you saw him that's no surprise
That's where she hides her pretty little lies
Who could blame her for such daydreaming
She's got her own erotic video streaming
Just look at how she's beaming
No one wants to give up this feeling
Cuz she's under his spell, under a spell
Guess she's addicted to him, is she under a spell?
Cuz she's addicted to him
Ooooooooooooo ooooooooooooo

Hope she's not in a place of compromise
If he said to jump, would she say 'how high?'
Would she change her life just to accommodate Something has come to her quite late
But suddenly just fills up her plate
Addicted, addicted to him, to love, to love
Addicted to him, chemistry of love
Ooooooooooooo

Sex and Love is all about chemistry
That's been the truth since all of Herstory
Is she in a place of compromise?
If he said, 'do we jump' would she say, 'how high?'

It's clear there's something going on intense
He's the first one to jump over her fence
He's coming off as a long lost prince
Never seen her like this before or since

Should we be worried? Or is she just addicted?
Just addicted. Addicted to chemistry, addicted to kind of chemistry
Of love, chemistry, addicted to some kind of chemistry, chemistry
A drug, a drug that's what happens with erotic love
It's just a drug, drug, drug

He's got the moves
He doesn't need booze
She's got nothing to lose
Except her heart and all of her mind
Will she stop all that she is doing to go with him to
THE MOON

We've got to stop her from going to the moon
Someone's given her the power of Swag
She's already gone too far
It's already gone too far
Stop, stop, too far
Flying Flying to the moon
Already taken off for the moon
Already taken off for the moon

She's gone to the moon

Daaadoodiyda

AWAY (Constance Hauman ©2021)

I drew the Prince of Hearts
It says a brand new start
You'll know love's happiness
Finally letting go, the past
will be swept away

I drew the Two of Cups
It says an exciting romance
You could have a second chance
If you let it go, the past
will be swept away

I drew the King of Wands, this one you can count on You might already be friends, finally letting go
The past will be swept away

You drew the Queen of Hearts, you've been looking from the start
A best friend and a lover, finally letting go the past will be swept away

Watching you cross the street feeling my heart skip a beat
Seeing your face as if the first time
Could it be you, oh how I want it to be true
Just too afraid to let it go
We've got the same Venus and Mars
Love written in the stars
Held together by poetic trines
There's no reason or rhyme
Outside the continuum of time
True love is never blind

You drew the Queen of Wands
Someone you can count on

You've got a second chance
If you let it go
The past will be swept away
You drew the Two of Cups
Looks like you've got love luck
If you let it go, give it a chance
The past will be swept away
If we give it a chance
If we give it a chance
The past will be swept away

If you let it all go, the past will be
Swept away
Swept away
Swept away

IT'S TRUE (Constance Hauman ©2021)

Oooooooooo, oooooooooooooo

Yeah it's true, I might be afraid to admit what other people could say
Cuz It could be true that I am in Love with you Something I'm afraid to admit because I told myself with Love that I quit

But when you said I could live with you
I thought that was something I'd want to do
Ooooo, ooo it's true, it's true, it's you

Yeah it's true, I've got to admit like you I've been in love where it buried in me blue
So makes me afraid to be so into you

I can't fight our flow, I know you know, what I know That's why I've got this quiet trust that my heart wants to be with you

Oooooo, oooooo it's you,
Ooooo, oooooo it's true
Oooooo It's you

You opened my heart
You, you opened my heart
Ohhhh you opened my heart
You're my heart, you're my heart

You're my heart, you're my heart

Oooo, oooooo it's true
Ooooo, ooooo it's you
Oooooo, it's you

EDGE OF THE SKY (Constance Hauman ©2021)

On the other end of the sky
I've seen the other side of the sky
On the other end of the sky
I will meet you

I'll just wait on the other side of the sky
On the other end of the sky I'll meet you
I'll meet you there

Ahhaahhhhhahhhhhhahhh

I found you on the other end of the sky

Floating, on the other side of the sky, floating

On the other side of the sky, I will meet you there

I'll meet you there, ahhhh I will meet you there on the other side of the sky, the moon and the stars, we are one

On the other side of the sky, will you fly away with me?
On the other side, take me there, I will take you there
The stars, Neptune, the haze of love's newness
Where all the magic lies

I'll meet you, I am you and you are me
We'll continue to reside on that other side of the sky
AH AH AH the other edge of the sky

Take me there, to that place
Where you are mine and I am yours
To fly high on the haze of love
You are taking me there, taking me there
I see the edge of the sky

We are the edge of the sky
We've met on the edge of the sky

Before

Neeyadada, ahaahah, hey hey hey
To the edge of the sky, to the edge

Take me there, lift me up, lift me up
With Angel choirs, taking me there

Your love, you lift me up, lift me up oooooooo, ahhhh, oooooo, ahhhhhhh
